

A close-up photograph of a person's legs from the knees down, wearing white high-heeled shoes. The person is standing on a dark, textured metal grate. The lighting is dramatic, with strong highlights on the skin and the shoes, and deep shadows in the surrounding environment. The person is wearing a white, pleated skirt or dress. The overall mood is mysterious and slightly ominous.

“Collaborative work in productions and teams clustered over different locations and cities is a tough process. But Yamdu together with ARRI Webgate brings everyone and every media close together!”

— Marc Schwellenbach, Head of Postproduction, UFA Serial Drama, Germany

„Our entire team loves Yamdu. It has a comprehensive set of features and it’s easy for anyone to jump in and learn the software.“

— Micah Haughey, Producer, Silver Rose Entertainment, USA

“Implementing Yamdu has streamlined our production processes and allowed us to operate on an enterprise level more efficiently due to the simplicity of the program.”

— Jill Michelle Williams, VP Original Content + Production, TWO RIVER Pictures, USA

— Oliver Schündler, CEO & Producer, Lucky Bird Pictures, Germany

“While there are many products out there for production management, we believe Yamdu has their finger on the pulse of modern production, so we quickly embraced this integration with Showbiz Budgeting .”

— Steve Bizenov, Vice President Showbiz / Media Services, USA
